YOU ARE NOT TO COMMIT ANY CRIMINAL OFFENSE NOR VIOLATE ANY CONDITIONS OF THIS RELEASE ORDER. ANY RE-ARREST FOR ANY OFFENSE BASED UPON PROBABLE CAUSE MAY BE GROUNDS FOR REVOCATION OF THIS ORDER.

A violation of any of the conditions of this order may result in a forfeiture of any bail posted, the revocation of this release order, prosecution for contempt of court, and the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest.

1. It is a criminal offense under 18 U.S.C. § 3146 if, after having been released, you, the defendant, knowingly fail to appear as required by the conditions of release or to surrender for the service of a sentence pursuant to a court order. If you were released in connection with a charge of, or while awaiting sentence, surrender for the service of a sentence, or appeal or certiorari after conviction, for:

- 1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment or for a term of fifteen years or more, you shall be fined not more than $25,000 or imprisoned for not more than ten years, or both;
- 2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, you shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
- 3) any other felony, you shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both;
- 4) a misdemeanor, you shall be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

A TERM OF IMPRISONMENT IMPOSED FOR FAILURE TO APPEAR OR SURRENDER SHALL BE CONSECUTIVE TO THE SENTENCE OF IMPRISONMENT FOR ANY OTHER OFFENSE.

2. The commission of any offense on pretrial release may result in an additional sentence upon conviction for such offense to a term of imprisonment of not more than ten years, if the offense is a felony; or a term of imprisonment of not more than one year, if the offense is a misdemeanor. This sentence shall be consecutive to any other sentence and must be imposed in addition to the sentence received for the offense itself.

ADMINISTRATIVE SANCTIONS FOR INFRACTIONS OF THE HIGH INTENSITY SUPERVISION PROGRAM RULES AND REGULATIONS

You have been placed by the Court in the High Intensity Supervision Program administered by the D.C. Pretrial Services Agency. You will be assigned a Case Manager who will orient you to the rules, regulations, and other requirements of the High Intensity Supervision Program. You will be given a contract outlining the rules, regulations, and other requirements of the Program and must sign the contract indicating you are willing to abide by the rules, regulations, and requirements of the Program.

If you have been placed in the COMMUNITY SUPERVISION PHASE of the Program, ANY infraction of any of the rules, regulations, or other requirements of the Program will subject you to more restrictive curfew hours, increased reporting requirements, and/or placement in the Home Confinement Phase of the Program for 21 days. Subsequent infractions will result in an immediate notification to the Court with a request that a hearing be held to consider revocation of your release conditions.

If you have been placed in the HOME CONFINEMENT PHASE of the Program, ANY infraction of any of the rules, regulations, or other requirements of the Program will subject you to continued placement in the Home Confinement Phase of the Program for up to an additional 21 days as well as an immediate notification being made to the Court of your infraction with a request that a hearing be held to consider revocation of your release conditions.

Throughout your participation in the High Intensity Supervision Program, PSA will submit to the Court cumulative weekly reports regarding any infractions of the rules, regulations, and requirements of the Program. As noted above, if you have been placed in Home Confinement, PSA will notify the Court immediately of each infraction that you commit.
